PUBLIC SCHOOLS CLOSED.

Pupils Begin Their Summer Vacation This Afternoon.

New York's public schools closed for the Summer vacation to-day. It has been the custom not to close the schools until July 3, but as that day falls on Monday, Supt. Jasper suggested to the Board of Education to close the schools to-day, and the suggestion was adopted. But little study was indulged in by the pupils during the day. The afternoon sessions were occupied with recitations and musical exercises.

torney advised the Grand Jury that there is no law under which Mayor Boody and the Aldermen can be indicted for this gross and scandalous public crime, the Grand Jury had to acquiesce.

"I express no opinion. The amendment of the criminal code so that the officials of Brooklyn may not be indicted for official misdemeanor, but must be tried before public justices of their own appointment, does not startle me, as I have known it for some time.

"No such provision applies to any other locality in the State or in the United States.

"If such a law had existed in New York Tweed could not have been tried." Adelbert was cut down by Sykeston a few days ago in a race. J. B. Dyer, owner of the latter, yesterday spoke to Sims, who rode Adelbert, with a view of finding out who was to blame in the matter. Sims replied in such an abusive manner that Dyer lodged a complaint with the Board of Stewards. Adelbert's racing days are said to be over.

Davy Johnson laid 20 to 1 against The Pepper for a while. He saw the horse go to the post with 4 to 1 against him. W. O'B. MacDonough and his friends thought Ameer could not lose. Their plunge on the colt caused the good price of 6 to 5 to be quoted against Dobbins.

To-morrow will wind up the most brill-iant meeting ever known in the history of the Hudson County Jockey Club. The racing has been far above the average, and has been particularly free from jobbery. The track will open again on the last Saturday in August.

COSCO'S BODY FOUND.

Missing Glen Island Watchman Found Under the Ferry Float. NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., June 30 .-The body of Joseph Cosco, the Italian night-watchman on Glen Island, who mysteriously disappeared from his post mysteriously disappeared from his post of duty on Sunday night last, was found this morning under the float at the ferry landing. The body was much decomposed, and there was a deep gash in the forenead. This may have been caused by the body coming in contact with the float.

Cosco was a steady, temperate man, and no one can assign any cause for his committing suicide, and it is generally believed that if he did not meet with foul play, he was accidentally drowned.
